Recommendation	Scope of Recommendation	Action to take	Lead Agency	Key Milestones Achieved	Target Date	Date of Completion and Outcome
The Community Safety Partnership, with partners across Leicester, Leicestershire, and Rutland, to consider the appropriate adoption, at a multi-agency level, of the Respect Screening Tool, to support case management through the identification of primary victims and perpetrators where the presenting typology of abuse is unclear.	Leicester, Leicestershire & Rutland (LLR) wide. This is coterminous with the Policing area.	Community Safety Team to enquire as to work undertaken or planned to incorporate the Respect Toolkit or elements / principles contained within it into practice/procedure and training to support officers to better identify victims in a DA setting across LLR	LCC Community Safety Named Lead Rik Basra	Contact was made with the Chair of the Multi-Agency DA Strategic Group in Leicestershire. Leicestershire Police reported in different Panel meetings that they will continue to utilise the current primary recognised risk assessment tool – DASH – as recommended national Authorised Professional Practise and will train staff on its use in line with recognised national best practice. They will not, therefore, adopt the Respect Toolkit. That said, elements of the Toolkit do feature in their Domestic Abuse Matters training package to officers. The DA Matters programme will continue which provides inputs to frontline officers and investigators regarding domestic abuse which incorporates some of the principles outlined within the ‘Respect Toolkit’ – for example how perpetrators may try to influence and manipulate officers/investigators, and potentially		Ongoing
